Terms and Conditions

Sunil Patil is committed to protecting the privacy of his customers and ensuring that personal details are kept strictly confidential. By providing Sunil Patil with personal details, customers are giving permission to Sunil Patil to contact them regarding their business criteria or with information that Sunil Patil believes will be of value to them.

By registering on Sunil Patil's website, customers agree to the following conditions:

1. Any information provided to Sunil Patil (The Agent) is on a confidential basis, and Sunil Patil agrees not to disclose it to any other parties.
2. Sunil Patil agrees not to speak to the owners or staff of businesses unless an appointment has been made by the Agent.

Your Online Security

Sunil Patil protects the security of the data that customers send through physical, electronic, and managerial procedures. Customers are urged to take every precaution to protect their personal data when they are on the Internet. They should change their passwords often, use a combination of letters and numbers, and make sure they use a secure browser.

Despite all reasonable security precautions and processes, such as password protection, encryption technology, and firewall technology, no data transmission over the Internet can be guaranteed to be 100% secure. Therefore, while Sunil Patil strives to protect personal details, he cannot guarantee or warrant the security of any information transmitted to or from the site, and customers do so at their own risk. Once the transmission is received, Sunil Patil will take commercially reasonable precautions to protect its security on his systems.

Sunil Patil collects and uses customer personal information to provide a personalized customer experience, to give convenient access to his services, and to make a wider range of services available to them. In addition, he uses personal information to keep customers up to date on the latest listings and other information that they might like to hear about.

Sunil Patil will never trade, sell, knowingly share or otherwise pass customer personal information to a third party for commercial use. He is committed to maintaining confidentiality of customer information, protecting privacy of customers, and treating customer information responsibly.

Customers may request to access their readily retrievable personal information held by Sunil Patil and to request a correction or deletion of their personal information, subject to certain grounds for refusal set out in the Act. Before exercising this right, Sunil Patil will need evidence to confirm the individual's identity. If a request for correction is reasonable, and Sunil Patil is reasonably able to change the personal information, he will make the correction. If not, he will take reasonable steps to note on the personal information that the customer requested the correction. In respect of a request for deletion, if Sunil Patil is reasonably able to delete the personal information, he will make the deletion.

Collection of statistical and survey data

Sunil Patil may collect non-identifiable, statistical information about your visits to this website. This information includes the pages you visit, the duration of your visit, and your navigation patterns. He may also conduct customer surveys to gather feedback on customer satisfaction, purchasing habits, and demographics. However, he will not request identifiable information during these surveys. Sunil's surveys are designed to help improve his services and provide a better experience for his customers.

If you have any questions about this website or its policies, please do not hesitate to contact sunil.patil@linkbusiness.co.nz

IP addresses

Sunil Patil may collect customer IP addresses for administrative purposes or to diagnose any problems with his server. Additionally, he may use IP addresses to gather broad demographic data on customer traffic patterns and site usage. This information is solely used internally to help develop this website in line with customer requirements and provide a personalized customer experience.

Cookies

Sunil Patil may use cookies to personalize your experience on his website. Cookies are small text files that are stored on your computer's hard drive via your web browser. These files contain information about your preferences and enable this website to recognize you on subsequent visits, making it easier to navigate our website.

Transfer of ownership

In the event of a merger, consolidation, sale, or transfer of all or substantially all of Sunil Patil's assets, the information we collect from our customers and store in our database may be transferred to the purchasing or new entity. However, we will take all necessary measures to ensure the confidentiality of your information is maintained.
